This Year of Prayer we are keen to find ways that we might deepen our prayer life in our parishes at St Jo's and the Annunciation. With a mind to simple things that would help with this, ideas will be very welcome. Please express your thoughts and inspirations to one of the Pastoral Team (Maggie and Tim Williams, Maggie Smith, Simone Thurbon, Deacon Bogdan, Fr Bill). Let the Spirit move your thoughts!

MAUREEN GANNON

With deeply felt compassion for Davis, we announce that Maureen Gannon died last week. May she be at rest after such a noble struggle with Alzheimer's. Her Requiem is on Monday 24th June at 12 noon. We pray for and offer our support to David at this trying time.

NAILSWORTH IN BLOOM

We are very pleased to include the contribution our church is making for Nailsworth in Bloom this year. Two delightful Versailles planters with pink, white, mauve and blue flowers at the main entrance, where wedding pictures are taken, two smaller ones outside the west doorway with a wild flower area of native plants to complement the many small hawkweeds, plus others, which bloom in the summer grass. The display commences with the single and double snowdrops around the church yard, a legacy from Brigadier and Mrs. Winifrede Mathias and Arthur Ransome their gardener, breeders of new varieties, then myriads of primroses.

St. Dominic's are planting for Nailsworth in Bloom again too. Two long troughs outside on St. Mary's Hill with nectar rich flowers for the bees, and Leves corner has cascading blue and white lobelia pots to simulate water, this year's theme.

LEAVER'S MASS

On Thursday, 9 pupils from St Dominic's, represented out School at the Leaver's Mass for all the schools of the Diocese. At the Offertory, each school brought a symbol of their school life. We brought a cross made from lots of hazel cuttings interwoven with yellow fabric, to represent the resurrection. It was a very moving occasion for all of us.
